FROM THE RABBI'S STUDY

STUDYING IN ISRAEL

One of the greatest opportunities I have had recently has been to study at the Shalom Hartman Institute in Jerusalem. Hartman has programs for non-profit executives, educators, philanthropists and rabbis. Its mission is to bring North Americans of diverse and non-practicing denominations together to learn about the latest trends in Judaism. For rabbis, this means exploring these subjects through the lens of Jewish tradition to discover new and creative interpretations.

From July 9 -17, over 100 rabbis gathered for Hartman's annual rabbinic seminar. I always look forward to attending because I get to visit with old friends and spend time in one of my favorite places in the world. When I'm in Jerusalem, I feel spiritually renewed. There is something about walking through its streets that connects me to our 3,000-year history and rejuvenates my spirit. I feel at home in Jerusalem like no other place, and even if I have not visited in a while, I still know I'm home when I'm there.

Additionally, more than just being in Jerusalem, it's the opportunity to study our sacred texts in our holiest city. This combination creates an indescribable feeling and provides the spiritual renewal that I seek. With all the social justice issues at risk in America, such as the rise of anti-Semitism, the lack of civility, the increased levels of racism, etc., it feels good to escape for a while to a setting that is comforting and strengthening. However, this sentiment might not make sense. According to the news, Israel and the Middle East are dangerous places but they are very safe. I've been to Israel nearly 20 times and each time I still get excited when the land appears in the airplane window and I see signs in Hebrew in the airport. Israel is my second home and I am grateful that I get there as often as I do.

I look forward to sharing what I have learned after my trip. Hartman always provides so much food for thought and has insights that helps us on our spiritual journeys.

B'vracha (With blessing),

Rabbi Jonah Layman

PRESIDENT
JUDY BRESLER

One of the secretaries in my office just returned to work following a knee replacement. Another had a procedure to close a blood vessel that was too large and the procedure was done under a local anesthetic in the doctor's office! Both seemed to me truly miraculous. I was in awe of the science and the medical advances that have occurred in my lifetime. That led me to thinking – what is a miracle really?

I know many would say that a miracle is something that results from divine intervention. The dictionary has three main meanings: (1) "a surprising and welcome event that is not explicable by natural or scientific laws," (2) "a highly improbable or extraordinary event, development or accomplishment that brings very welcome consequences," as in "it was a miracle that more people weren't injured," and (3) "an amazing product or achievement or an outstanding example of something," as in "a machine which was a miracle of design." But, for me, it is far simpler.

The word "miracle" comes from the Latin for "wonder." I think that describes a miracle perfectly. There really is so much wonder in this world if we take the time to notice. Judaism does a pretty good job of noticing. For example, did you know that there is a special prayer upon seeing a rainbow?

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ הוֹי אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ
הָעוֹלָם זֹכֵר הַבְּרִית וְנֹאֲמָן
בְּבְרִיתוֹ וְקָיָם בְּמִצְוָתוֹ

Blessed are You, LORD,
our God, King of the Universe, who remembers
the covenant and is faithful to God's covenant and keeps God's promise.

Baruch ata Adonai, Eloheinu melech ha-olam, zocher ha-brit v'ne'eman biv'reetoh v'kayam b'ma'amarav.

Upon hearing thunder?

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ הוֹי אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם שִׁכְחוּ וּגְבוּרָתוֹ מֵאֵל עוֹלָם

Blessed are You, LORD, our God, King of the Universe, whose strength and glory fills the universe.

Baruch ata Adonai, Eloheinu melech ha-olam, shekocho ooh g'vuratoh mahlay olam.

Upon seeing a beautiful tree or animal or person?

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ הוֹי אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם שִׁבְחָתוֹ לֹא בְעוֹלָמוֹ

Blessed are You, LORD, our God, King of the Universe, who has such things in his world.

Baruch ata Adonai, Eloheinu melech ha-olam, she kacha loh b'olamoh.

Despite all there is to dread and worry about these days, it's nice to remember that there are a lot of wondrous things in this world if we have the eyes to see them.

DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION & PROGRAMMING
AUGUST HIGHLIGHTS

Greetings from Jerusalem! As I write this, I am in the middle of a three week program at the Conservative Yeshiva (CY). I am participating in an Ulpan to improve my modern Hebrew, as well as studying texts ranging from Talmud to Rabbinic Responsa on Gender. Rabbi Layman and I spent part of last Shabbat together at the CY with a service led by musician Joey Weisenberg from the Hadar Rising Song Institute. My education article (p.3) has a video of Joey in action during Havdalah.

As I immerse myself in our tradition and the melting pot that is modern Israel, I keep thinking about what is happening with the immigrant population living in the U.S. and ways Shaare Tefila's congregants can assist them. Volunteering at the Hebrew Immigration Aide Society \(HIAS\) in Silver Spring is a good first step. By helping HIAS' immigrant clients, you are fulfilling the mitzvah of caring for the stranger, a commandment that is so important it is repeated in the Torah more than any other. The passage is in Vayikra/Leviticus 19:33-34, When a stranger lives with you in your land, do not mistreat him. The stranger living with you must be treated as one of your native-born. Love him as yourself, for you were strangers in Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

Watch for more ways to help those in need this year. Lisa Hedgepeth and the Social Action Committee will be promoting on-going projects, such as Olney Help and organizing a variety of new and exciting service activities for family involvement.

We will soon be observing Tisha B'Av, a time for remembrance and reflection. As you contemplate the recent past and our community, I suggest that in the coming year you make an effort to increase your level of synagogue engagement. This might mean coming more frequently to pray on Shabbat or to morning or evening minyans. You could attend one of Rabbi Layman's classes or join the congregation for Havdalah, Shabbat dinner and other programs focused on learning and celebrating. Details for the year ahead will be in the September Shofar and on Shaare Tefila's website calendar.

In the meantime, we invite you to come with your friends and join us on August 18th at 2:00 p.m. for a FREE Family Fun Day! We will have a moon bounce, ice cream, watermelon, water activities and more! RSVP to Roberta Katz by August 14. I hope to see you then!

GATES OF DISCOVERY
BETH ADLER, PRESCHOOL DIRECTOR
THE POWER OF GATHERING

This past school year at Shaare Tefila's Gates of Discovery: The Rose and George Teller Preschool, we focused on the concept of group. In our school, we believe that relationships are foundational to learning. A system of relationships is, at any moment, both real and symbolic. Relationships facilitate fruitful conflicts, investigations and activities connected to each child's curiosity. When children encounter others and they discuss, argue and compare ideas, they are building understanding. Relationships at Gates of Discovery are about creating a community that works for each child, as well as for the group; a community wherein children learn to share their own perspectives, encounter new ones and offer and receive feedback on their points of view. Instead of interacting only through feelings and a sense of friendship, children discover how fruitful it is to exchange ideas.

To expand on the concept of group, in the upcoming school year the notion of gathering will be investigated. Our belief is that in every learning moment both the teachers and the children are researchers. As such, in initial teacher and child conversations about the theme gathering, the questions below emerged and will be the focus of the school term.

- Are grouping and gathering synonymous? Can we use those words interchangeably? If not, what is the distinction?
- Does gathering imply intention of purpose?
- Can animals or inanimate objects gather or only people?
- Do you gather once you are a community or only to form a community? Are both possible?
- Do gatherings always strengthen ties between the people involved?
- Do all participants in a gathering have a responsibility to the gathering?
- How do you structure a gathering to support all who gather?
- What role does the environment in which you gather play?
- Since gathering is a large part of Jewish life, how do we want to represent this value in our school?

One book we read at the start of our research was, The Art of Gathering, by Priya Parker. In this book, Parker enumerates many reasons why we gather, but suggests that the first step in a meaningful gathering is committing to a bold, sharp purpose.

being together for several years and working closely is like an emotional life raft." At Gates of Discovery: The Rose and George Teller Preschool, this is our purpose and the power of gathering.

Happy Summer! As I write this I am in the middle of a study program at the Conservative Yeshiva in Jerusalem. My mornings begin with a three hour Ulpan (class in modern Hebrew/Ivrit) followed by a variety of text-based study subjects, such as Talmud to Midrashic readings related to the cycle of the year.

One of the experiences I enjoyed while in Israel was a Shabbaton with Joey Weisenberg of the Hadar Rising Song Institute. He is a musician who leads people in learning the tradition of niggunim, as well as, singing original musical compositions. This video and these photos below taken during Havdalah give you a little taste of Havdalah with Joey. Enjoy! See you soon!

THE SOCIAL ACTION COMMITTEE

CONTRIBUTOR: LISA HEDGEPEETH, COMMITTEE CHAIR

The Social Action Committee is looking forward to another exciting year of stimulating and thought-provoking programming. Plans are underway for several speakers, films, etc. for the 2019-2020 year. Once again, we will be hosting the MLK Community Service Day in January. We look forward to welcoming a diverse community of friends at our programs to foster new relationships and learn from one another's experiences.

LET'S MAKE A DIFFERENCE AND DO KIND WORKS TOGETHER!

COLLECTION OF NEEDED SUPPLIES FOR IMMIGRANT CHILDREN AT OUR SOUTHERN BORDER

The Social Action Committee has reached out to a few organizations in order to help with the crisis at our borders and beyond. We hope to become partners in some of the very bold and effective initiatives that are already in place. More information to follow.

In the meantime, KIND WORKS is organizing a collection of needed supplies for immigrant children at our southern border. There are drop off locations in Montgomery County. Use the link below to see the list of needed items and where to bring them. Be kind and do KIND WORKS.

KIDDUSH & CATERING COMMITTEE
ETHEL LEVINE & FRAN KENSKY

Don't you just love it when you are greeted with a sumptuous Challah & Schmear kiddush once a month after services? This is all thanks to YOUR generous contributions.

We would like to see this tradition continue. Challah & Schmear sponsorship is open to all congregants who want to participate. Please contact the office with your minimum donation of $18 per kiddush or $180 for the entire year.

Why sponsor a Challah & Schmear? You can acknowledge a special simcha, such as a graduation, new job, birth of a child or grandchild, wedding, anniversary, completion of medical treatments, a promotion or any number of things. It's always such a pleasure seeing Shaare Tefila members kibbitzing as they enjoy a delicious and beautifully-presented Challah & Schmear kiddush.

Our deepest appreciation and thanks to our hard working kiddush captains and the volunteers who show up on their scheduled week. Visitors to our shul often remark that our kitchen is extremely well-run and is tip-top shape. Of course, our hard working porter, Luis, works diligently to maintain the cleanliness and functionality of the kitchen. When you see him, please tell him, thank you for a job well done.

Looking forward to a very successful, delicious and hamishe New Year at Shaare Tefila,

Ethel and Fran
