Sukkot Lunch: Pizza (& Pasta) in the Hut! Sunday, October 20, 12:15 PM - 2:00 PM

Come celebrate the harvest holiday of Sukkot in our beautiful Shaare Tefila sukkah, have a meal with friends and learn a little too!

Our guest speaker will be Joelle Novey, Director, Interfaith Power & Light (DC.MD.NoVA), who will speak about the Jewish response to climate change.

As our world experiences a climate crisis, how are Jewish communities across our region bringing Jewish wisdom to this moment and joining with neighbors to respond? How can communities like Shaare Tefila speak out for the strong climate policies we need at the local, state, and national levels, and how can we lead the way by shifting our homes and buildings to clean power?

FROM THE RABBI'S STUDY

October 7

Rabbi Jonah Layman | RJLayman@ShaareTefila.org

I am writing this article just days after Hersh Goldberg-Polin and 5 other Israeli hostages in Gaza were brutally executed by Hamas terrorists. His funeral - conducted on September 2 - was an incredibly emotional service. Thousands of Israelis lined the streets to the cemetery, hundreds were in attendance, and the president of Israel spoke at the funeral and apologized to the family. More powerful than that outpouring of love and support was Rachel Goldberg's (Hersh's mother) own words in which she promised to continue to connect and communicate with Hersh in her heart.

Though scores of other hostages were killed by Hamas, and 90 more (as of this writing) are still being held by the terrorists, it seemed that Hersh's murder was most painful. Perhaps it was because of how active and persistent Rachel and Jonathan were to bring attention to Hersh and the other hostages. They traveled across Europe and America, they met with the Pope, with our President and Vice President, they spoke at the UN, they did everything and anything they could do to raise awareness. In clear and articulate language, they moved people to tears. But tragically to no avail.

As the first anniversary of that devastating day in Jewish history approaches, what have we learned?

Israeli society is at a breaking point - at no other time in the history of the State of Israel, has its society been so torn apart. When Israel's survival was threatened by the Yom Kippur War in 1973, Israel, in the end triumphed and its society was still united. But now Israel may yet claim victory over Hamas but the Israeli public is still torn apart with thousands demonstrating and protesting in the streets demanding the return of the hostages and PM Netanyahu's resignation.

The American Jewish community is at odds - cases of antisemitic incidents in public schools, on synagogue signs and on the college campus have drastically increased and it's frightening. The Jewish community is also under pressure from the inside with many supporting Palestinian rights and even demonstrating as anti-Zionists.

We can only hope and pray that Oct 7 will eventually serve to unite us once again. There is no other alternative than for Israel and the Jewish community to survive. But more than survive, Israel has to regain the trust of its public and has to restore its vision to always be a Jewish democratic state that will protect its citizens and ensure justice and equality for all. We pray that day will speedily come.

Daring to hope for the future,
Rabbi Jonah Layman

Message from the President

Jeff Weiss, President | President@ShaareTefila.org

As the season transitions from summer to fall, we all know that the High Holidays will be upon us. This time of year invites us to reflect, repent, and renew our spirits. It is an opportunity to gather as a community, to connect with our heritage, and to support one another on our journeys.

As a number of you know, many journeys for Fran and myself are travel journeys. We have been fortunate to travel to many places. Currently, we are excited about our big upcoming trip to Calala Island in Nicaragua to celebrate our 30-year journey of being married. I'm sure we'll have many inquiries regarding the trip upon our return and we look forward to sharing our experiences with you.

For the High Holidays, we have an exciting array of services and programs planned to bring us together, whether in person or online. I encourage you to join us, connect with fellow members, and participate in the community activities. Your involvement enriches our synagogue and strengthens the bonds we share.

For those who may not be able to attend in person, we will provide virtual access to ensure everyone can partake in the observances and celebrations.

I wish you and your families a sweet and joyous New Year. May it be filled with health, happiness, and blessings.

On My Mind

By Jerry Kiewe, Executive Director | JKiewe@ShaareTefila.org

In the Quran, the Jews are among those whom are referred to by the Islamic term, Ahl al-kitāb – the ‘People of the Book,’ owing to the centrality of scripture as a central element of what guides our faith. In the modern world, Jews have earned a reputation for being ‘bookish’ – as a community, we tend to be highly literate and place a heavy emphasis on education and scholarship.

On a personal level, I am a ‘bibliophile’ – an avid reader, and I tend to collect more books than I find time to actually read. I have widely varied tastes and am often picking up books that seem interesting and that, in the moment, I fully intend to read. I DO read a lot ... but alas, each pile of ‘interesting books’ grows faster than I can actually pick them off – and the piles themselves get too high and then multiply. I fully relate to the classic Twilight Zone episode, ‘Time Enough at Last,’ in which the central character, an addicted bookworm played by Burgess Meredith, alone survives the destruction of the city where he lives. He finds the library and begins piling up stacks and stacks of books that, now with time on his hands, he eagerly intends to read. Of course, in a classic Twilight Zone style twist of irony, his hopes are ultimately dashed, but in that scene, his enthusiasm for the reading opportunities that await, literally speaks volumes. Any time I venture into a library – to say nothing of a Jewish library – or a bookstore – or even stumble onto the free-for-the-taking book boxes that are sprouting up with increasing frequency, that character is ME.

And I DO read a lot and always have. It’s a cliché, but I really DID have a childhood habit of reading under the covers with a flashlight in defiance of my mother’s admonishments to get me to go to sleep. Now that’s changed to my wife admonishing me to turn off the lights so she can get to sleep.

In 1985, shortly after I finished graduate school (the first time; I was a glutton and went back for a second dose), and shed responsibility for volumes of ‘assigned reading,’ I set a personal goal; to read a minimum of 50 books each calendar year ... and have steadfastly maintained that ever since. Some years, I surpassed it early and reset my aim to 100. And, obsessively, I have been keeping track of the titles. Yes, for nearly 40 years, I have kept a record of every book I read - or listened to; at some point I discovered books on tape to be surprisingly satisfying and they have become a staple companion to my car travel. I note that I began this listing before personal computers became a ‘thing’ so it’s handwritten. Perhaps one day I’ll convert it to an electronic database. I am typically in the middle of at least two books – one that I am listening to in the car and anywhere from one to three that I am reading. My tastes run the gamut; autobiographies, astronomy, American and Jewish history, mystery novels, and a steady dose of science fiction.

My latest completion was a random library book that I picked off at a whim – a great find. The Lost Shtetl, authored by Max Gross, offers the premise of a small shtetl town in Poland that somehow managed to become so isolated that it remained oblivious to – and untouched by – ANY world events and developments for over a century. When some of its residents belatedly ‘discover’ – and the town is then ‘discovered by’ – the current day world, there is ‘cultural shock’ aplenty. At just shy of 400 pages, it was a great read.

Books are wonderful; they are a door to people, places and ideas both familiar and strange. They are a great way to expand your knowledge or just to provide entertainment and distraction. And we have these fantastic institutions called ‘libraries’ which have huge collections ... and let you borrow books for FREE. It’s a luxury I cherish.

Lenore and Rabbi Jonah are happy to welcome the Shaare Tefila community to their sukkah, after services on Shabbat, October 19, (12:30ish - 2:00 PM) for kiddush lunch. All are welcome but please let Rabbi Jonah know that you’ll be coming - RJLayman@ShaareTefila.org

Programming and Education

Babette Cohn, Director of Education & Programming | BCohn@ShaareTefila.org

The world is new to us every morning—and every [person] should believe [they are] reborn each day. — Baal Shem Tov

These words, by Israel ben Eliezer, known as the Baal Shem Tov (Master of the Good Name) was born at the beginning of the 18th Century in Eastern Europe and is the founder of Chasidic Judaism. My hope is that as we approach this time of reflection during the High Holidays and beyond, his words inspire you to make the most of it.

The children and staff of Chavaya have had a smooth transition from summer break to the new school year. Classes spent time in September reviewing and learning new things about the fall holidays. The school staff were fortunate to learn with Lauren Wistreich from the Jewish Coalition Against Domestic Abuse, with training on how to be a trustworthy adult. The children were also fortunate to hear from their schoolmate Jason Wolf, one of our 6th graders, when he presented his experience as someone who raises bees and harvests honey in our local area. It made for a special segue into the Rosh Hashanah season for the children.

The whole community, including our Chavaya students and parents, will come together for our annual Tashlich celebration on October 6 at 10am at Lake Needwood (weather permitting). Rabbi Jonah will lead us in the service and ceremony, there will be food and some surprises, activities for the children with their teachers, and time to socialize. The program concludes at 12pm and is in lieu of regular Chavaya school that day.

The fun of the Jewish holidays will continue at Shaare Tefila with two programs for the fall festival. We hope you will join us for both of these opportunities or at least one!

During the intervening days of Sukkot, on October 20, 12:15-2pm, we invite you to a lunch program in the sukkah with speaker Joelle Ivey from Interfaith Power and Light. Registration is just $5 a person and all the event details can be found on the sign up page here, <https://bit.ly/3XYcGfc>.

You are encouraged to begin your celebration on Erev Simchat Torah (October 24) at our Wrappin' Up the Torah Dinner! The gathering will begin at 6pm, after which we will proceed into the festival service. The cost of a delicious wrap sandwich dinner, including side dishes and dessert, will be $13 a person; all the details can be found on this registration page, <https://bit.ly/4gAWGqD>.

On behalf of my family I wish you and your loved ones a Shana Tovah Umetukah/A Sweet and Good New Year!

Perry & I recently returned from a trip to Ireland which was fabulous! The night after our return was the annual Sisterhood Paid-Up Membership dinner. I was determined to attend even though I was worried about being tired from the time change! Well, I felt great and it was such a wonderful evening filled with laughter, good food, positive energy, and meeting new people!

We were very excited to welcome 10 new sisterhood members...Ivy Konel, Karyn Gross, Marci Ruben, Debbie Finch, Sarah Jackson, Karen Sussman, Anne Zajicek,

I also look forward to seeing our new members and of course, long-timers during the High Holiday services as we all pray for a much more peaceful New Year ahead.

Please don't hesitate to let me know if you have any questions or would like me to reach out to family and/or friends that may be interested in our welcoming and warm shul community.

Sisterhood

Shelley Rochester, Sisterhood President

Hello, Ladies! Well, we have slogged through a very rainy (yay for our vegetable gardens), very dry (yay for fewer mowings) summer. Now as we enter October, we'll be preparing for so many holidays, we won't have time to even look outside! I have so many things to share with you; one sad, but most cheery.

- We lost a vital member of Sisterhood: Betsy Morgenstern. She supported Sisterhood for many years and for 15 years was our treasurer. She had an infectious laugh and was known for her beautiful garden. We extend our condolences to Gary and sent the family an Edible Arrangement.
- On September 16, we held our Paid-up Membership Dinner. We had a wonderful turnout. Karen Sussman, a recent member, created a Pasta Bar with the help of Fran Kensky, Bess Teller, Val Kolmaister and many others (apologies to those stalwarts whose names I have not mentioned.)
- Under the manly supervision of Mike Binder, the Men's Club "bar-tended" and tidied up. Thank you, Lanny Plotkin, Danny Benn, Jeff Weiss and Jay Hagler.
- I am delighted to announce we have eleven (!) new Sisterhood members: Welcome to Karen Sussman, Debbie Finch, Ivy Konel, Anne Zajicek, Marci Rubin, Sarah Jackson, Karyn Gross, Sue Leshin, Ashley Doyle, Karla Jones and Mindy Higgins.
- Rather than a speaker for after-dinner entertainment this year, we played Scattergories, with the tables forming teams. There was a great deal of chatter, laughter and cheating. And everyone had a fun time. It was declared that everyone was a winner and there ensued a mad grab for prizes. (It was rather reminiscent of Sale Day at Loehmann's.)
- The good news is we plan for the fun to continue. Game Night is October 27 in the shul, from 7:00 to 8:30 PM. There will be more games and more prizes. The more that women sign up, the more fun we'll have. We have already started collecting prizes and will have items from a brand-new plunger to a gently used diamond necklace. (NOT!) But there will be goodies for all the winners, and we're hoping this will be another brush-your-cares-away evening. Publicity will be in your emails, so don't forget to register!
- As (yet another) reminder, Rosh Hashana begins at sundown Wednesday, October 2 and continues through Oct. 4. Yom Kippur begins at sundown on Friday, October 11 and ends the following day, Saturday, October 12. And Sukkot begins at sundown on Wednesday, October 16 and continues through Friday, Oct. 18.

Chag Sameach, Gut Yomtov, be safe, be well and may this year be filled with sweetness, comfort and good health.

SPECIAL ST SISTERHOOD PATRON EVENT

Tour of the Josiah Henson Museum and Park

11410 Old Georgetown Road in North Bethesda

Sunday, November 10, 12 Noon - 2:00 PM

FREE to Sisterhood Patrons

Participants will travel independently to the Museum, but we encourage and attempt to facilitate carpooling. Further details about that will be forthcoming once they are arranged. Parking on-site will be available, along with handicapped spaces for those with HC parking passes. Be assured that the grounds of the museum are ADA compliant and are wheelchair and walker-friendly.

The tour will begin at 12:00 noon and will include a 12-minute film entitled "My name is Josiah Henson." And there is a gift shop in the lobby for pre-Chanukah shopping needs.

Josiah Henson (June 15, 1789 – May 5, 1883) was an author, abolitionist and minister. Born into slavery in Port Tobacco in Charles County, MD, he escaped to Canada in 1830, where he founded a settlement and laborer's school for other fugitive slaves.

Henson's autobiography, The Life of Josiah Henson, Formerly a Slave, Now an Inhabitant of Canada, as Narrated by Himself (1849), is believed to have inspired the title character of Harriet Beecher Stowe's 1852 novel, Uncle Tom's Cabin (1852). Following the success of Stowe's novel, Henson issued an expanded version of his memoir in 1858, Truth Stranger Than Fiction. Father Henson's Story of His Own Life (1858). Interest in his life continued, and nearly two decades later, his life story was updated and published as Uncle Tom's Story of His Life: An Autobiography of the Rev. Josiah Henson (1876).

Afterwards, we will convene at The Shouk, 5568 Randolph Road in Rockville, for a light nosh. The Shouk is vegan and kosher; the food is Middle Eastern-style, e.g. - falafel, pita, salads, etc. There is ample seating both inside and outside. Sisterhood will cover $5.00 worth of food; participants will be responsible for the rest.

If you were a Patron of the Sisterhood either last year (2023-2024) OR this year, or are prepared to join at the Patron level, you are eligible to attend this year's event.

As we need to let the museum know how many will be coming, advance reservations are needed by October 31. Email Ethel Levine; Ethel.J.Levine@gmail.com.

Support Shaare Tefila Through Scrip Gift Cards

Raise money for Shaare Tefila with your everyday shopping to Giant Food, Shalom Kosher or Moti's Kosher supermarket. Instead of making everyday purchases with cash/credit – purchase gift cards through our synagogue scrip program. Note there is no additional cost to you, and a percentage of your gift card (5% of each dollar) purchase comes back to our synagogue. It is truly that simple!

Ways to order your scrip cards:

- Contact Barbara Fink at 240-447-4665 or email her at Beas_Fink@verizon.net. She will be happy to take down your order and arrange to deliver your scrip cards or have you pick them up at the synagogue office.

OR

- Orders can also be placed with Executive Director Jerry Kiewe at 301-593-3410, X101, via cell at 410-294-3205, or email him at JKiewe@ShaareTefila.org.

Payment can be made by cash, check or billed to your synagogue account.

In years past our scrip fundraiser helped raise close to $12,000 and that was when only 20% of our congregation bought scrip. Many of us shop at these markets and even know friends and family who shop at Giant, Shalom's and Moti's. Imagine how much money we could raise if 50% plus of our congregants participated in this program. We hope to expand the type of scrip buying cards in the fall. In the meantime, remember this scrip program has no additional cost to you, but earns dollars for our synagogue to help maintain our building costs. Please be someone who supports your synagogue, and order your scrip today. It's a win-win-win program for all of us!

Annual Toy Drive to Support Harmony Hills Elementary School

Cathy Plotkin

This fall I will be collecting donations for children who attend Harmony Hills Elementary School, in Aspen Hill. Each fall, through the generosity of members of our community, I am able to collect enough money to purchase toys for 20 children.

Harmony Hills Elementary is designated as a Title One school, which means that more children qualify for Free and Reduced Lunch meals.

It's an indication of the poverty in the area. The holidays are an especially stressful time for our families, and many families reach out for assistance- with clothes, food, and toys for the season.

If you would like to help my school, I would be so grateful- any amount will help. We typically spend about $15-$20 per gift, and it goes a long way since my shoppers do their shopping on Black Friday, when there are greater deals to be had!

There are several ways that you can donate:

- Mail a check to me; Cathy Plotkin, 18028 Bilney Drive, Olney, MD 20832.
- Send money via Zelle or Venmo, using my email; CathyP1130@gmail.com

Please send your donation by November 22 so that the shoppers will know how much they have to spend.

In addition, some of you have approached me with new books, coats, and other items that you have collected during last year's post-holiday sales and those contributions will also be welcomed.

The children will be so excited! Last year we collected almost $500, and I hope we can raise that amount again.

Thank you, always, for your love and support.

The goals of this community project are to help you clear out unwanted books, find some new ones, and ensure the proper disposal of unusable holy texts. Unwanted Jewish books may be dropped off inside the main entrance during school hours throughout November.

Titles fit for resale will be on display in the lobby for $1-$5. Volunteers to help sort books are welcome.

Social Action Committee Program Featuring Ninety-Nine-Year-Old Saul Dreier A Huge Success

By Lisa Hedgepeth, Social Action Chair

On Sunday, September 22, the Social Action Committee of Shaare Tefila hosted a lively and meaningful program. Ninety-nine-year-old Saul Dreier enthusiastically played drums with a local band, 'Swing 'N on a Star'; the latter headed up by our own Mike Binder.

Saul also shared his personal story of his experiences during the Holocaust and fielded questions from the audience. His charm, wit, and energy captivated the crowd of 100+. We danced, clapped, and laughed together. Saul auctioned off a pair of "autographed" drumsticks – to support his Foundation, The Holocaust Survivor Band, and took individual photos with at least 30 attendees.

This event was co-sponsored by the Jewish Community Relations Council [JCRC] of Greater Washington and Interfaith Works served as a partner.
